

Nephropathology Course: IgA Nephropathy

Date: Friday, 17 February 2023, Florence, Italy

Location: Hotel Brunelleschi Florence

Information: BiPath.Education@gmail.com

This is an intensive, one-day workshop-style course which will highlight current knowledge and developments in IgA nephropathy. Experts in the field will give state-of-the-art lectures in addition to two practical sessions that are designed to elicit a fruitful interaction between speakers and attendants. The assignments for the practicals will be available in advance, and it is also possible to send in questions for the speakers before the course. We look forward to see you in Florence!
